Just to double check and make sure you and I are agreed on your schedule for the PFIAB briefing this week. I understand that you will be briefing the four new Board members along with one of Howard Osborn's people the morning of Wednesday, 1 August on the security aspects of some of our more sensitive programs. You will also sit in on Bill Colby's briefing of the new members and will squire the whole crew over to NPIC in the afternoon. I also understand you will be present at the luncheon on Wednesday. If I am off on any of this, please let me know.
